12 Key Concepts of Global Citizenship with suggested stimuli

1. Commitment to fairness/social justice, and a willingness and ability to act to make the world a more equitable place.
   ♦ Wicked World (poetry) Benjamin Zephaniah. Puffin Books

2. Respect and concern for the environment, and a willingness and ability to live in a more sustainable way.
   ♦ Dinosaurs and all that rubbish (1972) Michael Foreman. Hamish Hamilton
   ♦ Oi! Get off our train (1989) John Burningham. Cape

3. Empathy towards others and a sense of common humanity
   ♦ Some things are scary (2000) Florence Parry Heide. Walker Books

4. An appreciation of diversity in all its forms: ethnicity, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation

5. A sense of identity and self-esteem.
   ♦ Something Else (1994) Kathryn Cave. Viking

6. Willingness and ability to collaborate and co-operate with others and to resolve conflict peacefully.
7. An understanding of the world and its' affairs, as well as of one's own place within it.

8. An understanding that the world is interdependent and that there are rights and responsibilities connected with this.

9. A belief that we have power to change things and can make a difference for the better.
   ♦ The People who hugged the trees (1990) Adapted by Deborah Lee Rose. Roberts Rinehart Inc.

11. A willingness to take responsibility for our own actions.

12. Willingness and ability to participate in and contribute to the community at a range of levels from local to global.